ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

The University of Southern California is a top-ranked private research institution with a strong tradition of integrating liberal and professional education that fosters a vibrant culture of public service. USC encourages students to cross academic—as well as geographic—boundaries in pursuit of knowledge.

ABOUT THE USC ROSSIER SCHOOL OF EDUCATION

The USC Rossier School of Education is one of the world’s premier centers for the study of urban education. Rossier is founded on the belief that all students can learn and succeed, and this is reflected in our mission: to improve learning in urban education locally, nationally and globally. What unites all of Rossier—renowned faculty, committed staff, dedicated students and successful alumni all over the world—is our determination to make a difference, to transform education and to change the lives of all students.

ONLINE LEARNING AT USC

To extend this shared passion around the globe and, more importantly, to expand the positive impact our graduates will make, we have brought a select number of our master’s-level programs online. Our programs provide candidates the ability to deepen their practice, advance their careers and benefit from a quality USC education wherever they may be.

ADMISSIONS

To be considered for an advanced degree program, your academic background, professional goals and leadership abilities must meet the demands of rigorous graduate-level work. Admissions requirements and application deadlines are available at rossieronline.usc.edu.
